STYLE & SUBSTANCE

Atlanta Magazine's HOME captures life in the capital of the South. After covering this city for more than half a century, no one understands it like we do.

Atlanta is a thriving urban center rooted in the traditions, handcrafts, beauty, diversity, hospitality, and rich culture of our region. This magazine isn't just another book about decorating—although we're all about pretty spaces. It's about celebrating a sense of place, savoring the finer things in life, and creating homes that inspire and comfort us every day. Atlanta Magazine's HOME delivers sophisticated, meticulously curated home design four times per year as a standalone publication.
