ATLANTA MAGAZINE ANNOUNCES 2023 WOMEN MAKING A MARK HONOREES

ATLANTA, GA – March 1, 2023: Atlanta magazine is pleased to announce the 2023 Women Making a Mark honorees. “We are extremely excited by this year’s group of honorees,” says Sean McGinnis, president and publisher of Atlanta magazine. “Not only are these women leading some of Atlanta’s finest corporations and organizations, but they also serve as role models and mentors to all of us who strive to give back, contribute to the community, and work tirelessly for causes we are passionate about.”

A networking session followed by an awards breakfast will take place on Friday, June 9, 2023, in the open-air plaza at Colony Square, the iconic mixed-use development in Midtown. (A rain date is scheduled for Thursday, June 15.) A special commemorative Women Making a Mark section with profiles of each honoree will be published in the June issue of Atlanta magazine. Your Atlanta Area BMW Centers returns this year as the presenting sponsor and official automobile of the annual Women Making a Mark program.

About Women Making a Mark

Atlanta magazine's Women Making a Mark program, now in its 13th year, strives to recognize women in Atlanta who are doing extraordinary work in our community. Women Making a Mark honorees represent a diverse group of women from corporate, legal, medical, educational, arts, and nonprofit sectors across our city. Nominations are accepted via atlantamagazine.com and through a network of past honorees. An awards event takes place each June, and the honorees are profiled in the June issue of Atlanta magazine.
